

It's time the FCC stops pandering to big business and protects the privacy rights of U.S. citizens. Do not weaken the regulations for the Do Not Call lists. I do not, and never will, purchase any item sold by telemarketers. Therefore, it is in both parties interest to keep these lists and not bother calling residences when there is no chance of making a sale.